

Ordinance 2026-07

An Ordinance amending Ordinance 2025-04, regulating the keeping of dogs and other animals within the City of Mulberry, Section 8.

Add the following to Section 8: Large Animal Prohibition. No large animals as defined in this section will be permitted in the City of Mulberry.

Same; Definition. Large animals will be defined as any animal excluding dogs and cats including but not limited to: cows, bulls, cattle, sheep, goats, horses, burros, mules, ostriches, emus, llamas, pigs, exotic animals or farm animals of any kind.

A large animal already within the city limits of the City of Mulberry as of September 8th 2026 will be exempt for this act and may be retained within the city so long as there is adequate room for the animal to move about, not be over crowded, and there is acceptable fencing sufficient to retain the animal. Once the large animal is removed from the property, no property shall be exempted under the "grandfather clause" and the property shall be barred from having large animals thereon. Any change in title to real estate shall be deemed a transfer of property as to render the property subject to this act prohibiting large animals on that real estate. The use of land for large animals shall belong only to the record title owner of real estate on the date of adoption of this act. The right to have large animals on real estate within the City of Mulberry shall not pass with the land transfer, but shall terminate and thereafter use of the land for large animals shall be contrary to this ordinance.

The maintaining of poultry for the purpose of personal consumption or collecting eggs for personal consumption, is permitted, when kept in a safe and sanitary manner. Free range is prohibited.

Ordinance 2025-04 is hereby reaffirmed in all other respects.
